GEORGIAN COURT UNIVERSITY

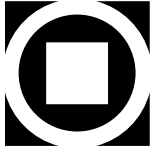

THE MERCY UNIVERSITY OF NEW JERSEY

JOSEPH R. MARBACH, PH.D., became Georgian Court University's ninth president on July 1, 2015. As the president of Georgian Court University, Dr. Marbach is charged with leading the strategic vision and growth of the university. He is the first male and first lay president in Georgian Court's history. Dr. Marbach graduated magna cum laude from La Salle University in 1983, and earned an M.A. and Ph.D. in Political Science from Temple University in 1986 and 1993, respectively. He possesses a distinguished background in the academic arena as both an educator and thought leader. His areas of expertise include federalism and intergovernmental relations, state and local government, and New Jersey politics.

MATTHEW R. MANFRA, joined Georgian Court University in March 2019. He brings over twenty years of higher education leadership to the position of vice president for institutional advancement. His previous experience includes alumni relations and development roles at five other institutions, including his tenure at George Washington University where he led the completion of their $1 billion campaign. A leader in the industry, he has served numerous professional organizations and has been a keynote speaker for a variety of groups including the Embassy of Switzerland in the United States.

Kimmel Bogrette Architecture + Site has been providing extraordinary design solutions for ordinary budgets since 1995. For more than 27 years, the firm has worked hard to dispel the notion that meager budgets justify the mediocre outcomes that are built every day.

Principals Martin Kimmel, Matt McQuaide and Joe Horan bring with them more than 60 years of combined experience in helping clients to fulfill their missions by transforming their unique needs into reality. Kimmel Bogrette has become a well-respected, award-winning design firm by combining experience, expectations and excellence that starts with the principals and is passed down through the firm and on to our clients.

Services offered: Architectural Design, Interior Design, Feasibility, Project Management, Planning, LEED Certification Services, Historic Preservation, Construction Management, Construction Documentation, Design-Build Construction, Construction Administration

IN LOVING MEMORY OF RAYMOND F. SHEA JR., ESQ

RAYMOND F. SHEA JR., ESQ

Raymond F. Shea Jr. was a renaissance man in every aspect of his life. Ray was a visionary. A dreamer. A creator. A humanitarian. Although Ray was a successful attorney by trade, he was also a real estate developer, co-creator of Laurita Winery, and a true philanthropist. He dedicated his time and expertise to education and healthcare for over 40 years. As a proud member of the Georgian Court University board and through several meritorious causes, he worked tirelessly to support the community-at-large.

However, his proudest title was that of a family man. We are honored to salute his legacy with his wife Suzanne; daughter Erin Shea-Farber and partner Joseph Dayon; son Edward and wife Cristina Shea; son Timothy Shea; daughter Megan and husband Daniel Bowles; grandchildren Ryan, Alex, Katie, and Shea; and his sister Liz and husband Chet Jakubowski. We also fondly remember Ray and Suzanne's beloved daughter, Kate, who inspired so many through her courage and strength.

Ray embodied Georgian Court's Mercy Core Values, especially that of service. Ray served on the GCU Board of Trustees from 2003-2015 and served in a leadership capacity as Chair of the Board from 2011-2015 and Vice Chair from 2006-2011. Ray was deeply involved in the key decisions for the creation of our nursing program in 2008 and Georgian Court to become a co-ed university in 2013. Ray also chaired the GCU Gala in 2004 & 2005 and was an active supporter of the Annual Scholarship and Golf Outing. Ray contributed both his time and resources to Georgian Court University including a transformational gift to benefit the creation of the Wellness Center. In 2021, the university's Board of Trustees unanimously voted to create the Raymond F. Shea Jr. Memorial Scholarship in his memory. The scholarship will be given to a full-time undergraduate student with a minimum GPA of 3.0 and with proven financial need.

Ray's legacy will live on in perpetuity through his years of noble service and the many students who will carry on his good work in his honor.
